

A Vision and Mission

The Ann Arrundell County Historical Society seeks to encourage and inspire present and future generations to preserve and explore the County's history and to foster a greater appreciation of our shared legacy. The Society achieves this through educational initiatives by utilizing its resources, including the Benson-Hammond House, the Kuethe Library and their collections, and by gathering, preserving, researching, publishing and interpreting materials that document the County's history, and encourages others to do the same.
